

JOHN BENNETT fine paintings

Monets Studio Boat at Vetheuil; Bathers by Monets Sudio Boat
LÉON PELTIER

Sold

Description

LÉON PELTIER 19th Century French School River Landscape with Bathers; Woman in a punt with a Village Beyond Oil on panel, signed and dated 1882, a pair 18.6 x 15.3 cms or 7 3/8 x 6 inches Exhibited: Musée des Beaux Arts, Rouen This artist was born in Paris but lived all his life in Vetheuil. He was a landscape and genre painter and was a pupil of Gabriel Pierre Marie Bouret and also Norbert Goeneutte. He exhibited at the Paris Salon from 1880 onwards. His work is typical of the late Impressionist movement of the latter half of the 19th century.