

JOHN BENNETT fine paintings

The Rose Garden
ANTOINE GRIVOLAS

Sold

Description

ANTOINE GRIVOLAS 1843-1902 French School The Rose Garden Oil on canvas, signed 48.2 x 69.5 cms 19 x 24 5/8 inches Exhibited in Japan at the Exhibition of French Contemporary Art in 1904 This artist was born in Avignon in 1843. He was the brother and pupil of Pierre Grivolas who painted genre and portraits, principally in watercolour.

Antoine specialised in flower and landscape subjects and he first exhibited at the Paris Salon in 1877 and obtained an honourable mention in 1884. The museum at Niort has a work entitled Un Coin de Parc Montsouris and a painting entitled Jardin de l'Observatoire.

Grivolas died at Vallauris in 1902.